ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The Commission cannot identify efficiencies arising from this bill at this time. For the transition period, existing resources will be reallocated to achieve the goal of more expeditiously adjudicated complaints. In addition, the Commission will use existing resources to provide training and outreach to those subject to the disclosure laws, so that all will receive timely notice of the changes. Further, the Commission will use existing resources to promulgate new regulations implementing the changes to the disclosure laws. Once electronic filing is online, the Commission and the Department of Administration expect to realize efficiencies.
